HELION CENTURY OF THE SOLDIER ENGLISH CIVIL WAR CONFERENCE 2019

FIRE AND SWORD ALONG THE MARCHES FIGHTING THE ENGLISH CIVIL WAR ON THE WELSH MARCHES

Saturday 2nd November 2019 9.30am- 5.30pm

University Centre Shrewsbury, Guildhall, Frankwell Quay, Shrewsbury, Shropshire SY3 8HQ

Due to popular demand, Helion is delighted to announce a second Century of the Soldier Conference for 2019. Working in partnership with University Centre Shrewsbury, we have a wide range of papers covering a variety of topics. Dedicated to the English Civil Wars, the conference will study the conflict as it developed across the Welsh Marches. We shall also be launching new titles on the day with special offers. Drinks will be available through the day and a buffet lunch will be provided.

TICKETS £30 PER PERSON
including lunch, and drinks during the day

Papers confirmed so far (more TBC):

Peter Gaunt - A Tale of Two Cities: Chester and Gloucester in the Civil War

Jonathan Worton - The Fall of Royalist Shrewsbury

Richard Israel - Offa's Dyke and its ineffective role in the English Civil War

Richard Leese - The Archaeology of a Siege: A Case Study from Civil War Shropshire

Andrew Abram - 'Fight with, and slay, all such as by force oppose you': Sir William Brereton's Offensive Strategy in Cheshire and its Borders, April-October 1643
