

New Research in Military History 2018 Conference

Accommodation and Transportation

The 2018 New Research in Military History conference is being hosted by the University of Southampton. Transport links to the campus are excellent and there are a number of hotels available, as detailed below.

Travelling to Highfield Campus

University of Southampton, University Road, Southampton, SO17 1BJ

Travelling by car

There is limited car parking on campus and therefore delegates will be contacted nearer to the conference with further details regarding parking.

Travelling by bus or coach

Unilink buses run from Southampton Airport, Southampton central train station and the city centre to Highfield Campus. The U1 and U2 routes stop very close to each of the four hotels listed below.

You can find timetables and route maps at www.unilinkbus.co.uk.

National Express provides regular coach services to Southampton from central London, Heathrow, Gatwick, Birmingham, Bournemouth and other major cities. Southampton Coach Station is at Western Esplanade, in the city centre. Some coach services also stop at Highfield Campus.

From Southampton Coach Station you will need to walk to the nearby Civic Centre, where you can continue your journey to Highfield Campus using the Unilink bus U1 or taxi.

Travelling by rail

Trains from Portsmouth and Bristol/South Wales stop at Southampton Central, trains from London and Bournemouth/Weymouth stop at both Southampton Central and Southampton Airport Parkway. There are also regular trains from major airports such as Gatwick and Heathrow to Southampton Central.

You can find details of routes and timetables at www.nationalrail.co.uk.

Highfield Campus is three miles from Southampton Central, and two miles from Southampton Airport Parkway. The Unilink bus U1 runs from both of the stations to Highfield Campus.

Travelling by air

Southampton International Airport is a few minutes away from Highfield campus by bus and there are flights to Southampton from UK airports, mainland Europe and the Channel Islands.

London Heathrow Airport is just over 60 miles from Southampton, and London Gatwick Airport is nearly 90 miles from Southampton. National Express run regular coach services from both airports, or you can travel by train from central London.
